LORNA G. SCHOFIELD
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Re: United States v. Michael Jackson
21 Cr. 386 (LGS)

Dear Judge Schofield:

The Court has ordered that Mr. Jackson self-surrender to the United States Marshal's on Friday June 17th. I write seeking the Court's indulgence to allow Mr. Jackson to self-surrender to the United States Marshal's, on June 28th no later than 2 p.m. I seek these few additional days for two reasons. Mr. Jackson's presentence report interview is scheduled for June 22nd (the appointment was made several weeks ago and shortly after his plea) and I would appreciate it going forward as planned. It is unlikely I will be able to reschedule- quickly due to my own schedule. In addition, Mr. Jackson's daughter's is graduating from preschool and there is a graduation ceremony. It is important to Mr. Jackson, his wife, and his daughter for him to be there and share this experience.

Respectfully,

/s/

Donna R. Newman
